An aerial photograph of a large-scale construction project, likely a stadium, showing extensive scaffolding on the left side of the frame. The scaffolding is labeled with 'RIENTH Gerüstbau'. In the center, there's a large area with construction materials, including rebar and concrete blocks, and a structure labeled 'Mittleingang'. To the right, there are more construction materials and equipment, including a yellow excavator. The background shows a large, curved structure with a glass roof, possibly a stadium bowl, and other buildings in the distance. The image is annotated with green labels: K16, K15, K18, K17, K20, K1, K2, K19, and 'Mittleingang'. A date stamp '29.04.2025 09:20:20' is in the top left, and a date '29. April 2025' is in the bottom right. A URL is visible at the bottom center.

This aerial photograph captures a large-scale construction project. On the left, a tall building under construction is completely encased in a complex network of metal scaffolding. Red banners with the text "RIENTH Gerüstbau" are visible along the sides of the structure. To the right of the scaffolded area, a flat concrete slab serves as a workspace, where numerous long steel reinforcement bars (rebar) are laid out in neat rows. A central opening in this slab is labeled "Mitteleingang". Further to the right, there are large piles of grey concrete blocks and bags of cement. In the background, several circular structures with blue-tinted glass roofs are visible, some labeled K1 through K20. The ground is a mix of dirt, gravel, and paved areas. At the bottom center, three yellow skips filled with debris are parked. The overall scene depicts an active and organized construction environment.
